Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Harvard College: Class of 1885, Secretary s Report No; V To The Class of Eighty-five: The duties of the secretary have again led him into communion with most of the class in the course of the preparation of this fifth report for our fifteenth anniversary. The class have responded well and fully - not without urging in some cases, to be sure, but in a manner to make the pleasure of the commission outweigh the labor. If the report is not all that it should be the secretary will willingly bear his portion of the burden of blame for any shortcoming that is his, but in turn must remind the class that the reports can only be interesting and of service as the men make complete and readable returns. A reading of the sketches shows that Eighty-five is stepping forward. Not only is it gaining distinction through the work and effort of some of its fellows, but in many quiet ways is doing manly service for mankind. Among these latter are those who as school-committee men, as minor public officers, and workers for social improvement are playing the parts of good citizens quite as much as those whose reputations are a matter of common knowledge to all of us. The record of Eighty-five in the Spanish War is one which compares well with the records of younger classes, and with classes of equal age at the time of the Civil War. The loss of five men, Calhoun, Codman, Davidson, Mills and Simpkins since the last report was published is a sad blow. Seventeen, or nearly ten per cent, of the one hundred and ninetytwo who...
