Collin C.Peterson (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Present: Representatives Collin C.Peterson, Bobby L.Rush, William H. Zeff, Jr., and Christopher Shays. Also present: Joy Simonson, professional staff member; June Saxton, clerk; and Joe McHugh, minority professional staff. Committee on Government Operations. Opening Statement Of Chairman Peterson Mr. Peterson. The subcommittee will come to order. Today the Employment, Housing, and Aviation Subcommittee continues its series of hearings on employment training programs of the Federal Government. Two months ago we heard from the General Accounting Office, the National Governors Association, and officials from three State labor agencies about the severe problems caused by fragmentation of these programs. The GAO reports that there are 154 training programs in 14 Federal agencies, costing about $25 billion a year. The programs have overlapping target groups and different eligibility criteria, funding streams, structures, and reporting systems. This bureaucratic maze of programs frustrates and confuses the public, service providers and, worst of all, the job seekers in need of help. We can no longer tolerate the waste of Federal money, the waste of money at the Federal, State, and local levels which results from this uncoordinated crazy quilt of programs. The administration has proposed a Reemployment Act which moves toward an integrated system by merging several dislocated worker programs within the Labor Department. This hearing is not the forum to review the bill in any...
