Excerpt: . . . seeing it comes from one who by his great Skill in Languages, both ancient and modern, was very well qualified to judge of this Question. And now, Sir, I shall venture to lay down my Proposition at Length. It is this: That there was but one Language in the World, when the Progeny of Noah went down into the Valley of Shinaar to build the City and Tower of Babel; and that then, as Moses literally informs us, there was a Confusion. of Tongues insisted upon the Workmen by the immediate Hand of God, so that they could not understand one anothers Speech; and that upon that Confusion there were new Languages instantly framed, which Languages have been the Roots and Originals from which the several DialeSls that are, or have been, or will be spoken, as long as this Earth Jhall last!, have arisen,...
