By Harry T Hays

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Delivered Before the Reading Room Society of St. Mary s College, on the Twenty-Second of February, 1841 Gentlemen and Fellow Students: In accepting the pleasing task which your kindness has imposed upon me, I cannot but feel embarrassed, from a deep sense of my inability to address you in a manner suitable to so august an occasion, or adequately expressive of the feelings which it is so eminently calculated to inspire. The practice of celebrating this day in a particular manner, has been sanctioned by the unanimous voice of the American people; nor need I undertake to show you that such celebrations tend to perpetuate a familiar knowledge of the means by which our country was erected into a republic; to inspire us with a true love of liberty and a jealous care of our republican institutions. Festive days in honor of heroes have been celebrated by all nations and throughout all ages, and the fruits arising from their observance are manifold and rich. They carry us back to the days on which the...
