CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: In thinking about your own retirement, does it seem more probable to you that your money will outlive you -- or that YOU will outlive your money? On average, one happens about every five years, so you will likely experience 5-7 recessions during your retirement. Have you recovered from the last two recessions yet? Are you fully prepared for the next one? Along with the high likelihood of living through a number of future recessions, longevity and inflation...
